

We investigate and experiment

We choose the equipment that we need

Science is fun and surprising

We go outside to discover and explore

We are excited to learn about science

Children predict, ask questions and discover through investigations

Writing is not a barrier to learning

Teachers are enthusiastic

Children are given independence to plan and learn

We inspire and encourage children's natural curiosity, and promote a lifelong love of learning, discovery and exploration.

Children use scientific vocabulary in discussions and explanations