Spirituality Policy 25-27

Love others – “My command is this: love each other as I have loved you.” John 15:12

Everyone join in – “How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live together in unity!” Psalm 133:1

Always do your best – “Work at everything you do with all your heart.” Colossians 3:23

Reach out – “Do to others as you want them to do to you.” Luke 6:31

Never give up – “I can do all this by the power of Christ. He gives me strength.” Philippians 4:13

Love others; Everybody join in; Always do your best; Reach out; Never give up.

Lowdham CofE (Aided) Primary School Spirituality Policy Spiritual Development at Lowdham

All areas of the curriculum may contribute to pupils' spiritual development. Spiritual development relates to fundamental questions about the meaning and purpose of life which affect everyone, and is not dependent on a religious affiliation.

At Lowdham Church of England Primary School we describe spirituality in the following ways. Spirituality is an appreciation and cherishing of what is good, joyful, truthful and beautiful, and, in relationship with others, of what is generous, creative and loving. The spirit of a person is seen in acts of courage and perseverance, in dealing with both setbacks and praise, in endeavour and enquiry. Spiritual learners become increasingly aware of the concept of beyond – a growing relationship with the transcendental and the ability to explore experience beyond the everyday.

Spiritual learners search for meaning in their very existence and their place in the greater scheme of things. At Lowdham we consider the different layers of how we connect spiritually with ourselves, our community, our world and our God. "How we connect" posters are displayed in classrooms and around school (see Appendix 1).

Aims

In order to foster spiritual development, the school aims to provide children with opportunities to:

Develop an appreciation of their uniqueness and value as a child made in the image of God;

Develop an understanding of the distinctive ethos of this church school as well as the context, language and symbolism of the Christian faith;

Develop knowledge and understanding of the school's core Christian values and the Biblical teaching that underpins them;

Experience feelings of wonder;

Develop an awareness of and respect for other peoples' beliefs and faiths and the ability to articulate their own

Develop an appreciation of what it means to be a part of a community (e.g. using their gifts and abilities in the service of others);

Develop strategies to build good mental health;

Foster self-awareness and encourage pupils to make informed decisions;

Develop the skills and language required to enable them to reflect upon the big questions and mysteries of life;

best; Reach out; Never give up.

Begin to understand and make sense of their own feelings and emotions to certain encounters and events that occur in their life.

- Develop an awareness that experiences of disappointment, failure and loss may be occasions for spiritual growth;
- Understand the value of difference and diversity through involvement with others;
- Encourage curiosity, creativity and imagination;
- Develop the ability to reflect upon experiences of awe, compassion, beauty etc
- Develop a capacity to value the natural world, a sense of awe and wonder and a commitment to care for creation.

These objectives will enable the pupils to have a quality of life that encompasses respect, awareness, compassion, curiosity, understanding and relationships that reflect order, reason, balance and integrity.

Teaching and learning

Through teaching and learning, the school pursues these aims by ensuring:

- The curriculum and all areas of our community life will be driven by the school's Christian Vision Statement and associated values;
- Opportunities for spiritual development are actively planned into the curriculum and encouraged in all areas of school life;
- Unplanned and spontaneous spiritual experiences are recognised, acknowledged and/or celebrated by staff and children;
- Collective worship celebrates the love of God for every individual and provides opportunities for children to respond and reflect on this;
- A solid understanding of the Christian concept of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit; of prayer and of the Bible is nurtured and developed;
- The school building and outdoor environment provides appropriate spaces for silence, stillness and prayer, we have an outside reflection area;
- The school, church and other sacred places are used across the curriculum, giving children the opportunity to explore their own spirituality;
- That children's spiritual capacities such as imagination, empathy and insight are fostered through the creative arts and interactive multi-sensory teaching strategies making use of the outdoor environment and relevant educational visits;
- Opportunities to look attentively and observe carefully, listening with discernment, valuing what is good and worthwhile and making judgements through discussion and exchange of views and ideas;
- Support for learning to live with success and failure for themselves and with others;

Love others; Everybody join in; Always do your best; Reach out; Never give up.

- That moral development is linked to spiritual development through strategies such as ‘windows, mirrors and doors’ (see Appendix 2);
- That the excellent RE curriculum delivers knowledge and understanding of spiritually from a number of world faith and world view perspectives.
- That children are given as many opportunities as possible to explore the wonder of the natural world and to develop an understanding of the Christian belief that creation is a gift from God to be enjoyed, cherished and protected;
- Promotion of strategies for positive mental health (see Appendix 2)
- Spirituality is embedded in the new Curriculum Mapping for each year group as part of SMSC teaching and learning.
- Each curriculum subject has an overview document that links to the schools Vision and Lowdham Learner values. Subject leaders are encouraged to consider aspects of Spiritual growth as the children progress through the school.

Approaches

In our school we seek to find ways in which all areas of the curriculum can contribute to children’s spiritual development and to highlight opportunities for these in our planning by:

- Seeking to foster spiritual capacities, e.g. imagination, insight and empathy;
- Allowing children, the security and opportunity to explore and express feelings and emotions and to celebrate diversity;
- Providing opportunities for prayer including silence and stillness;
- Sharing feelings and experiences that foster hope, joy, reassurance and encouragement;
- Encouraging children to develop relationships based on the school’s Christian vision and associated values;
- Enabling children to make the links between the Church and Biblical teachings, the life of the school and the wider community and how these impact on their own understanding of themselves and their place within the world today;
- Providing an environment that promotes space to reflect, think and wonder.

At Lowdham, we seek to find ways in which all areas of the curriculum can contribute to pupil’s spiritual development and to highlight opportunities for these in our planning, collective worship, the learning environment and any other opportunities that we can celebrate spirituality. For more details of planned provision for spiritual flourishing, see the school’s current Personal Development document.

Monitoring and Evaluation

Spiritual development cannot be measured and continues throughout our lives. However, opportunities offered to children for spiritual development will be monitored and evaluated in the following ways;

- Observing and listening to children;
- Regular discussion at staff and governor meetings alongside the school's Christian vision and values;
- Sharing of classroom work and practice;
- Ensuring that staff have a clear understanding of what spirituality means in this school and providing induction and development training;
- Evidence from pupils' work, e.g. reflective diary, RE books, SMSC work; creative writing; Regular inclusion in the SEF;
- CPD opportunities.

Appendix 2

Windows, mirrors and doors approach to spirituality.

	Giving children opportunities to become aware of the world in new ways; to wonder about life's WOWs (things are amazing) and OWs (things that bring us up in short). In this, children are learning about life in all its fullness.
	Giving children opportunities to reflect on their experiences; to meditate on life's big question and to consider some possible answers. In this they are learning from life and exploring their own insights and perspectives and those of others.
	Giving children opportunities to respond to all of this; to do something creative as a means of expressing, applying and further developing their thoughts and convictions. In this they are learning to live by putting into action what they are coming to believe and value.

Love others; Everybody join in; Always do your best; Reach out; Never give up.

Extract from the Mental Health and Wellbeing Guidance; Advice for Schools and SIAMS Inspectors 2018

1. Spirituality and mental health

The Royal College of Psychiatrists has published some useful guidance on spirituality and mental health where they identify ways in which some aspects of spirituality can offer real benefits for mental health. They identify spirituality as being within and beyond formal religion and recognise that it 'often becomes more important to people in times of emotional stress and physical and mental illness, loss, bereavement and the approach to death.

They recommend that a person with a religious belief may need support which acknowledges and gives space to their faith as part of their support. Schools should therefore look to provide opportunities for inclusive spiritual development that supports good mental health as well as opportunities to learn from people of different faiths and beliefs about how their spirituality shapes them and supports their mental health and wellbeing. Religious Education which offers the opportunity for young people to engage with a diversity of people can support this. Schools would also benefit from building relationships with the religious leaders in their community.
